Position: Project Accountant

Location: Vancouver Office, BC

Availability: Immediate

Job Category: Full-Time

About the Role:

The Project Accountant will be responsible for the financial administration, cost tracking, budget monitoring, and reporting of the Company's exploration, feasibility study, and development activities.

Reporting to the Director of Finance, this role serves as the primary financial liaison between Finance and the technical teams, ensuring that project expenditures are accurately coded, tracked, reported, and aligned with approved budgets and Authorizations for Expenditure (AFEs). The position works closely with budget owners, consultants, and contractors to maintain project cost visibility and to monitor commitments.

The position plays a key role in providing timely reporting and analysis to support project decision-making. The role will also contribute to the development of scalable project accounting processes, financial controls, and construction readiness initiatives that will support the Company's transition from feasibility study to construction and operations.

What You'll Do:

- Monitor and control project costs against approved budgets and Authorizations for Expenditure (AFEs), including purchase orders, contracts, and outstanding commitments.
- Maintain the project cost control tracker each month, updating actuals and accruals and reconciling them to QuickBooks Advanced.
- Prepare monthly project forecasts in collaboration with budget owners and vendors and update the rolling forecast.
- Prepare budget versus actual and forecast variance analyses and investigate and explain significant variances.
- Validate the coding of consultant, contractor, and vendor invoices by project, cost centre, workstream, and AFE.
- Prepare monthly project cost reports and supporting commentary for the management cost review and Board reporting.

What You'll Bring:

- Diploma or Degree in Accounting, Business Administration, Finance, Project Management, or a related field.
- 3–5 years of experience in project accounting, cost accounting, project controls, or financial analysis.
- Experience in exploration, engineering, construction, or other project-based environments is preferred; mining industry experience is considered an asset.
- Advanced Microsoft Excel skills; experience using QuickBooks Advanced is considered an asset.
- Strong analytical, organizational, and data management skills.
- Strong communication skills with the ability to work effectively with technical and non-finance stakeholders.
- Organized, detail-oriented, and proactive, with a commitment to delivering accurate and timely project cost information.

Why Join Us

- We offer a competitive salary, commensurate with experience
- Extended health & dental benefits
- Collaborative, small-team environment with growth potential as the company advances
- Opportunities for professional development in a growing development-stage project environment.
- Your contributions will directly support the Company in building the project accounting and cost control function as it advances toward construction and operations.
